Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Captain Roger Krone has been a dedicated employee of the Mobridge Police Department for over 25 years; and,

Whereas, Roger and his wife, Faye, have one son, Toby; and,

Whereas, Captain Krone has trained all the young officers on the Mobridge Police Force for the past 25 years; and,

Whereas, Captain Krone is a prime example of what every police officer should strive to be; he could always be counted on as a back-up; and,

Whereas, Captain Krone's colleagues will host a retirement party on May 26, 2004, in advance of his June 1, 2004, retirement; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 1, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join his family, colleagues and friends in wishing him a fulfilling, healthy, and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twelfth Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
